

Ron I read a piece you wrote about Garabandal and other predictions relating to the Second Coming and felt you should be aware of the messages that Joe Coleman the visionary, mystic and seer that he is has been receiving since August 2009.

I am the second visionary. We both see Our Lady as well as her beloved son Jesus Christ. I also see a nun during the apparitions which I have been led to believe is Sister Faustina the Polish nun who are given a prayer of the Divine Mercy to prepare the world for the Second Coming back in the 1930's. Visions of St Philomena and St Bernadette have also occurred from time to time. They are becoming more pronounced and more frequent in recent weeks.

Neither of us knew each other in advance and come from different types of backgrounds and education. One thing for sure is that the apparitions not only happened but many of them were witnessed by quite a few people. We receive messages every month. From the beginning Our Lady asked that we publish them. Joe has gone public - I manage the website but have not gone public because I don't have the courage to tell you the truth. Nor could I put my family through what Joe's family had to endure when he went public.

The Catholic Church have banned us from Knock in Co Mayo where the sun began to spin and shake in the sky after each apparition predicted in advance.

Neither of us have ever read the Bible (because as Catholics for some reason it is not taught in schools - yes this is true). Yet the messages received all relate to biblical prophecies which did not make sense in the beginning. but now, of course, they do.

Either way after a very tough year in which our lives have been turned upside down and inside out - ridiculed, laughed at, mocked and banned along with all the genuine believers from entering the Catholic Church in the grotto at Knock, the messages, are of huge significance for the world as the Second Coming of Christ is about to take place. No date has been given nor will it Our Lady says. But the time is very close now.

We have been given YEARS but not dates regarding the Second Coming. The Tribulation has already started. The second half starts at the end of 2012/beginning of 2013 and will last four years until 2016. The 'Trinity Years' as the period was referred to by the Holy Spirit will last from 2013-2018 the sign of the beast 666. The first six relates to the one world economy. The second six relates to a new world leader - the anti-christ and the last six relates to the abolition of all religions into one new false religion. Reference was also made to the lifting up into the clouds but it was not clear. It seems to refer to the year 2013 but we are not sure.

Visions have also been given to Joe about future events, places, cities, and islands which will all be destroyed. In your writing you have been accurate in one you predicted but we have not gone public with those visions because they would cause tremendous distress to people.

Global earthquakes, disasters and turmoil are unfortunately going to affect many many countries. GOD HELP US ALL. It is up to all believers to pray extremely hard for the unbelievers if they are to be saved.

We pray every day that we can spread the truth of the messages which are authentic. we have nothing to gain financially or otherwise from these messages. keep checking our site for more messages. the next apparition is on Sat 6th November 2010. www.knockapparitions.com
